MODEL PAPER7 1. While I(write)the letter I(hear) a knock at the door.
1) Wrote, hear 2) write, heard 3) was writing, heard 4) was writing, was hearing
2. If I were a bird, I
1) Will fly 2)shall fly 3)would fly 4) can fly
3. What kind of friend are you ?
1) A 2) an 3) the 4) No article.
4. Choose the sentences with correct articles
1) Mount Everest is a highest peak in world.
 A Mount Everest is the highest peak in the world.
3) Mount Everest is the highest peak in world.
4) Mount Everest is the highest peak in the world.
5. He said to the magistrate " pardon me "
1) He begged the magistrate," pardon me "
2) He asked the magistrate to pardon his
3) He requested the magistrate to pardon me
4) He begged the magistrate pardon him.
6. The teachers advised raman to work hard
1) The teacher said " you should work hard Raman "
2) The teacher said "work hard, Raman "
3) The teacher said "to work hard, Raman "
4) The teacher said, "work to, hard Raman "
7. All desire wealth and some acquire it.
1) Wealth is desired by all and acquired by some of all.
2) Wealth is desired by all and acquired by some.
3) Wealth is acquired by all and desired by some.
4) Wealth was desired by all and acquired by some.
8. Who drew the picture? (change in P.V)
1) By whom was the picture drawn? 3) Whom was the picture drawn?
2) By whom is the picture drawn? 4) By whom were the picture drawn?
9. 'Subscription' terminates with
1) A full- stop 2) a semi – colon 3) a colon 4) a comma
10. A letter is a
1) Oral communication 3) verbal communication
2) Non –verbal communication 4) written communication
11. Three soldiers fainted in the heat but were quicklyby doctor.
1) Brought up 2) Brought round 3) Brought over 4) brought out 12. Identify the silent letter in the word. 'scintillate'
1) s 2) c 3) t 4) 13. Identify the number of syllables in the ' curiosity '
1) 3 2) 4 3) 5 4) 6
14. Radha Is senior
1) than 2) to 3) for 4) with
15. They had an argumentthe break.
1) in 2) at 3) since 4) over
16. Helen at tenyears old, already was reading Braille.
1) Noun 2) pronoun 3) conjunction 4) preposition
17. Okay is the earliest sound that has ever emanated from the human vocal chords.
1) pronoun, adjective 3) preposition, conjuction
2) Conjunction, adjective 4) conjuction, adverb
18. Identify the correctly spelt word
1) wepon 2) warior 3) sacer 4) rogue
19. Keats is greater than another English poet (change in to superlative)
1) Keats is of the greatest English poets.
2) Keats is not the greatest English poet.
3) Keats is the greatest English poet
4) No other English poet is so great as Keats.
20. $/d_3 3$: m / change the phonetic transcription in to english word.
1) gem 2) germ 3) gum 4) charm
21. /ple3 🕯 /
1) please 2) pleasant 3) pleasure 4) press
22. "How about going for a walk" this is a
1) asking a question 3) making a suggestion
2) Rejecting an invitation 4) asking for opinion
23. In the word ' electricity' stress falls onsyllable
1) First 2) second 3) third 4) fourth

MODEL PAPER7
24. Your brother is going for an interview.	(what would you say)
1) congratulation 2) well done	3)have a nice day 4) best of luci	< c
25. Doctorsa limb when the infection
1) Cut 2) amputate	3) destroy 4) repair	-
26. Getting a job in D. S. C is Herculian task	(the under lined word mean)
1) needing no effort 2) ve	ery easy 3) not possible 4) n	eeding a lot of effort
27. crux (synonym)
1) square 2) cross 3) inertia	4) gist
28. Please read my work,
1) don't you? 2) won't you?	, ,	4) can you ?
29. You don't think I came in here on purp
1) Don't you? 2) isn't it	3)do you? 4) can you?
30. choose the word opposite in meaning t		blank.
The mayor won miser but his son was a 1) Wreek 2) generous man 3) spend thrift 4) liberal man.
		peral man.
	31. The manager was pleased with Krishna. He gave him prize. (Change into simple sentence)1) Pleased with Krishna, the manager gave him a prize.
 Pleasing Krishna, the manager gave
3) Being Pleased with Krishna, the ma
4) Having Pleased with Krishna, the m
32. Which sentences is a simple sentence?
1) A man with a bank balance can not
2) A man who has a bank balance can
3) The lot of the poor cannot be under	rstood by the a man who has bank b	alance.
4) A man can't under the problem of t	the poor because he has bank balan	ce.
33. FIND OUT THE CORRECT SPELT WORD 1	TO THE GIVEN TRANSCRIPTION
r ^a / k 🖗 nse-
1) constrain 2) concern	3) consign	4) concession
PAS	SAGE
For my own part I have over gained the	nonnefit and most placeure also	from the books which have
For my own part, I have ever gained the nonprofit, and most pleasure also, from the books which have the difficulties have once been over	come these are the beaks made have made me think the most and, when t made have made me think the most and, when t which have struck the deepest root, not only in r	my memory and under standing but	likewise in my affections. For
made have made me think the most and, when t which have struck the deepest root, not only in r this point too should be taken in to ac count. We	my memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh	likewise in my affections. For
made have made me think the most and, when t which have struck the deepest root, not only in r	my memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh	likewise in my affections. For
made have made me think the most and, when t which have struck the deepest root, not only in r this point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34. The author compares a book to	my memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh	likewise in my affections. For
made have made me think the most and, when t which have struck the deepest root, not only in r this point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer	my memory and under standing but all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back.	likewise in my affections. For
made have made me think the most and, when t which have struck the deepest root, not only in r this point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34. The author compares a book to 1)A plant 2) a flower 35.The author derives profit and pleasure f	ny memory and under standing but all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer
made have made me think the most and, when twhich have struck the deepest root, not only in rthis point too should be taken in to ac count. Wewin. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer34.The author compares a book to1)A plant2) a flower35.The author derives profit and pleasure for1)difficult2) easy	ny memory and under standing but all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methics point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34.The author compares a book to 1)A plant 2) a flower 35.The author derives profit and pleasure for 1)difficult 2) easy 36.Profit and pleasure come only after	my memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3)thought provoking	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots
made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methis point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34.The author compares a book to 1)A plant 2) a flower 35.The author derives profit and pleasure for and pleasure for and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots	my memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3)thought provoking 3) the books have made him th	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink.
made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methics point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34.The author compares a book to 1)A plant 2) a flower 35.The author derives profit and pleasure for and pleasure for any difficult 2) easy 36.Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 1)	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3)thought provoking 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink.
made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methis point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34. The author compares a book to 1)A plant 2) a flower 35. The author derives profit and pleasure for 1) difficult 2) easy 36. Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37. The point to be taken in to account is the structure of t	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3)thought provoking 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink.
made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methis point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34. The author compares a book to 1)A plant 2) a flower 35. The author derives profit and pleasure for 1) difficult 2) easy 36. Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37. The point to be taken in to account is the 1) anything for which we don't pay a prior to be taken in the struck be taken in the stru	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3)thought provoking 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly.	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink.
made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methis point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34.The author compares a book to 1)A plant 2) a flower 35.The author derives profit and pleasure for 1)difficult 2) easy 36.Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37.The point to be taken in to account is the 1)anything for which we don't pay a prior 2)We won't make effort for what we get	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3)thought provoking 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly.	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink.
made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methis point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34.The author compares a book to 1)A plant 2) a flower 35.The author derives profit and pleasure for 1)difficult 2) easy 36.Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37.The point to be taken in to account is the 1)anything for which we don't pay a prior 2)We won't make effort for what we ge 3)Slight effort makes us fell tired	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3) thought provoking 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly.	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink.
made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methis point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34.The author compares a book to 1)A plant 2) a flower 35.The author derives profit and pleasure for 1)difficult 2) easy 36.Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37.The point to be taken in to account is the 1)anything for which we don't pay a prior 2)We won't make effort for what we ge 3)Slight effort makes us fell tired 4)we think highly of what we win.	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3) thought provoking 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly.	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink.
made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methis point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34.The author compares a book to 1)A plant 2) a flower 35.The author derives profit and pleasure for 1)difficult 2) easy 36.Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37.The point to be taken in to account is the 1)anything for which we don't pay a prior 2)We won't make effort for what we ge 3)Slight effort makes us fell tired	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3) thought provoking 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly.	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink. ice.
made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methis point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34.The author compares a book to 1)A plant 2) a flower 35.The author derives profit and pleasure for 1)difficult 2) easy 36.Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37.The point to be taken in to account is the 1)anything for which we don't pay a prior 2)We won't make effort for what we ge 3)Slight effort makes us fell tired 4)we think highly of what we win. 38.A maiden like a good book, should	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3) thought provoking 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly. t	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink. ice.
made have made me think the most and, when t which have struck the deepest root, not only in r this point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34. The author compares a book to 1)A plant 2) a flower 35.The author derives profit and pleasure fr 1)difficult 2) easy 36.Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37.The point to be taken in to account is th 1)anything for which we don't pay a prid 2)We won't make effort for what we ge 3)Slight effort makes us fell tired 4)we think highly of what we win. 38.A maiden like a good book, should 1)Be easy to approach	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly. t 3) not easily yield to the admirers. 4) be forward before her admirers	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink. ice.
made have made me think the most and, when t which have struck the deepest root, not only in r this point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34.The author compares a book to 1)A plant 2) a flower 35.The author derives profit and pleasure fr 1)difficult 2) easy 36.Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37.The point to be taken in to account is the 1)anything for which we don't pay a prior 2)We won't make effort for what we ge 3)Slight effort makes us fell tired 4)we think highly of what we win. 38.A maiden like a good book, should 1)Be easy to approach 2)Respond to the admirers	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly. t 3) not easily yield to the admirers. 4) be forward before her admirers	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink. ice.
made have made me think the most and, when t which have struck the deepest root, not only in r this point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34. The author compares a book to 1)A plant 2) a flower 35.The author derives profit and pleasure fr 1)difficult 2) easy 36.Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37.The point to be taken in to account is th 1)anything for which we don't pay a prid 2)We won't make effort for what we ge 3)Slight effort makes us fell tired 4)we think highly of what we win. 38.A maiden like a good book, should 1)Be easy to approach 2)Respond to the admirers 39.Identify the sentence with correct punct 1)I don't relish coffee, I prefer tea. 2)I don t relish coffee, I prefer tea	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly. tt 3) not easily yield to the admirers. 4) be forward before her admirers tuation. 3) I don't relish coffee- I prefer tea 4) I don't relish coffee; I prefer tea 4) I don't relish coffee; I prefer tea	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink. ice.
 made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methis point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34. The author compares a book to A plant a flower 35. The author derives profit and pleasure for and pleasure for and pleasure come only after b the books have struck deep roots the initial difficulty has been overcome 37. The point to be taken in to account is the analything for which we don't pay a priot 2) We won't make effort for what we ge 3) Slight effort makes us fell tired We think highly of what we win. 38. A maiden like a good book, should Be easy to approach Respond to the admirers 39. Identify the sentence with correct punct 40. Identify the sentence with correct punct for what we priot correct punct and pleas the priot of the sentence with correct punct for the sent	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3) thought provoking 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly. tt 3) not easily yield to the admirers. 4) be forward before her admirers tuation. 3) I don't relish coffee- I prefer tea 4) I don't relish coffee; I prefer tea tuation.	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink. ice.
made have made me think the most and, when t which have struck the deepest root, not only in r this point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34. The author compares a book to 1)A plant 2) a flower 35.The author derives profit and pleasure fr 1)difficult 2) easy 36.Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37.The point to be taken in to account is th 1)anything for which we don't pay a prid 2)We won't make effort for what we ge 3)Slight effort makes us fell tired 4)we think highly of what we win. 38.A maiden like a good book, should 1)Be easy to approach 2)Respond to the admirers 39.Identify the sentence with correct punct 1)I don't relish coffee, I prefer tea. 2)I don t relish coffee, I prefer tea	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly. tt 3) not easily yield to the admirers. 4) be forward before her admirers tuation. 3) I don't relish coffee- I prefer tea 4) I don't relish coffee; I prefer tea 4) I don't relish coffee; I prefer tea	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink. ice.
 made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methis point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34. The author compares a book to A plant a flower 35. The author derives profit and pleasure for and pleasure for and pleasure come only after b the books have struck deep roots the initial difficulty has been overcome 37. The point to be taken in to account is the analything for which we don't pay a priot 2) We won't make effort for what we ge 3) Slight effort makes us fell tired We think highly of what we win. 38. A maiden like a good book, should Be easy to approach Respond to the admirers 39. Identify the sentence with correct punct 40. Identify the sentence with correct punct for what we priot correct punct and pleas the priot of the sentence with correct punct for the sent	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3) thought provoking 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly. tt 3) not easily yield to the admirers. 4) be forward before her admirers tuation. 3) I don't relish coffee- I prefer tea 4) I don't relish coffee; I prefer tea tuation.	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink. ice.
 made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methis point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34. The author compares a book to 1) A plant 2) a flower 35. The author derives profit and pleasure for 1) difficult 2) easy 36. Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37. The point to be taken in to account is the 1) anything for which we don't pay a priot 2) We won't make effort for what we ge 3) Slight effort makes us fell tired 4) we think highly of what we win. 38. A maiden like a good book, should 1) Be easy to approach 2) Respond to the admirers 39. Identify the sentence with correct punct 1) I don't relish coffee, I prefer tea. 2) I don t relish coffee, I prefer tea. 40. Identify the sentence with correct punct 1. Dr. Raja Shekhar, M.B.B.S 	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3) thought provoking 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly. tt 3) not easily yield to the admirers. 4) be forward before her admirers tuation. 3) I don't relish coffee- I prefer tea 4) I don't relish coffee; I prefer tea tuation. 3) Dr. Raja Shekhar MBBS	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink. ice.
 made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methis point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34. The author compares a book to 1) A plant 2) a flower 35. The author derives profit and pleasure for 1) difficult 2) easy 36. Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37. The point to be taken in to account is the 1) anything for which we don't pay a priot 2) We won't make effort for what we ge 3) Slight effort makes us fell tired 4) we think highly of what we win. 38. A maiden like a good book, should 1) Be easy to approach 2) Respond to the admirers 39. Identify the sentence with correct punct 1) I don't relish coffee, I prefer tea. 2) I don t relish coffee, I prefer tea. 40. Identify the sentence with correct punct 1. Dr. Raja Shekhar, M.B.B.S 	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3) thought provoking 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly. tt 3) not easily yield to the admirers. 4) be forward before her admirers tuation. 3) I don't relish coffee- I prefer tea 4) I don't relish coffee; I prefer tea tuation. 3) Dr. Raja Shekhar MBBS	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink. ice.
 made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methis point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34. The author compares a book to 1) A plant 2) a flower 35. The author derives profit and pleasure for 1) difficult 2) easy 36. Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37. The point to be taken in to account is the 1) anything for which we don't pay a priot 2) We won't make effort for what we ge 3) Slight effort makes us fell tired 4) we think highly of what we win. 38. A maiden like a good book, should 1) Be easy to approach 2) Respond to the admirers 39. Identify the sentence with correct punct 1) I don't relish coffee, I prefer tea. 2) I don t relish coffee, I prefer tea. 40. Identify the sentence with correct punct 1. Dr. Raja Shekhar, M.B.B.S 	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3) thought provoking 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly. tt 3) not easily yield to the admirers. 4) be forward before her admirers tuation. 3) I don't relish coffee- I prefer tea 4) I don't relish coffee; I prefer tea tuation. 3) Dr. Raja Shekhar MBBS	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink. ice.
 made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methis point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34. The author compares a book to 1) A plant 2) a flower 35. The author derives profit and pleasure for 1) difficult 2) easy 36. Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37. The point to be taken in to account is the 1) anything for which we don't pay a priot 2) We won't make effort for what we ge 3) Slight effort makes us fell tired 4) we think highly of what we win. 38. A maiden like a good book, should 1) Be easy to approach 2) Respond to the admirers 39. Identify the sentence with correct punct 1) I don't relish coffee, I prefer tea. 2) I don t relish coffee, I prefer tea. 40. Identify the sentence with correct punct 1. Dr. Raja Shekhar, M.B.B.S 	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3) thought provoking 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly. tt 3) not easily yield to the admirers. 4) be forward before her admirers tuation. 3) I don't relish coffee- I prefer tea 4) I don't relish coffee; I prefer tea tuation. 3) Dr. Raja Shekhar MBBS	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink. ice.
 made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methis point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34. The author compares a book to 1) A plant 2) a flower 35. The author derives profit and pleasure for 1) difficult 2) easy 36. Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37. The point to be taken in to account is the 1) anything for which we don't pay a priot 2) We won't make effort for what we ge 3) Slight effort makes us fell tired 4) we think highly of what we win. 38. A maiden like a good book, should 1) Be easy to approach 2) Respond to the admirers 39. Identify the sentence with correct punct 1) I don't relish coffee, I prefer tea. 2) I don t relish coffee, I prefer tea. 40. Identify the sentence with correct punct 1. Dr. Raja Shekhar, M.B.B.S 	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3) thought provoking 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly. tt 3) not easily yield to the admirers. 4) be forward before her admirers tuation. 3) I don't relish coffee- I prefer tea 4) I don't relish coffee; I prefer tea tuation. 3) Dr. Raja Shekhar MBBS	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink. ice.
 made have made me think the most and, when the which have struck the deepest root, not only in methis point too should be taken in to ac count. We win. When a maiden is too forward, her admirer 34. The author compares a book to 1) A plant 2) a flower 35. The author derives profit and pleasure for 1) difficult 2) easy 36. Profit and pleasure come only after 1) the books have struck deep roots 2) the initial difficulty has been overcome 37. The point to be taken in to account is the 1) anything for which we don't pay a priot 2) We won't make effort for what we ge 3) Slight effort makes us fell tired 4) we think highly of what we win. 38. A maiden like a good book, should 1) Be easy to approach 2) Respond to the admirers 39. Identify the sentence with correct punct 1) I don't relish coffee, I prefer tea. 2) I don t relish coffee, I prefer tea. 40. Identify the sentence with correct punct 1. Dr. Raja Shekhar, M.B.B.S 	ny memory and under standing but e all want to think slightly of that wh deems it time to draw back. 3) a maiden rom book that are 3) thought provoking 3) the books have made him th 4) the books are got for a small pr at ce is taken lightly. tt 3) not easily yield to the admirers. 4) be forward before her admirers tuation. 3) I don't relish coffee- I prefer tea 4) I don't relish coffee; I prefer tea tuation. 3) Dr. Raja Shekhar MBBS	likewise in my affections. For ich I cost us a slight effort to 4)anadmirer 4) having deep roots ink. ice.

MODEL PAPER.	7	KEY
1) 3	2) 3	3) 1	4) 4	5) 4	6) 2
7) 2	8) 1	9) 4	10) 4	11) 2	12) 2
13) 3	14) 2	15) 4	16) 4	17) 2	18) 4
19) 3	20) 2	21) 3	22) 3	23) 4	24) 1
25) 2	26) 4	27) 4	28) 3	29) 3	30) 3
31) 3	32) 1	33) 4	34) 3	35) 3	36) 3
37) 1	38) 3	39) 4	40) 2				